Recall vs Continuing Care

What is the difference between Patient Recall and Continuing Care?

Patient Recall reads the recall table the way a practice has set it up in their Practice Management Software.

Continuing Care is set up in Patient Communicator and reads the last time the patient completed a selected appointment type(s).